SERGEANT JOHN P. HUGHEY
UNITED STATES ARMY

Sergeant John P. Hughey, United States Army, distinguished himself by exceptionally meritorious service as Telephone Maintenance Installer/Repairer, Telephone Maintenance Section, Outside Plant, Bagnoli Communications Squadron, Allied Signal Group-Naples, Southern Region Signal Support Regiment, Headquarters, Allied Forces Southern Europe, Naples, Italy from 31 March 1994 to 30 March 1997. During this period, Sergeant Hughey served as lead installer for the installation of four Allied Signal Group-Naples' state of the art Onyx digital key systems. His knowledge and leadership ensured connectivity for over 100 voice and data circuits, and allowed for a successful upgrade of Headquarters, Allied Forces Southern Europe. Sergeant Hughey's attention to detail and critical surveys enabled the successful installation of numerous rapid, short notice secure, and nonsecure communications circuits and telephones throughout the post in support of Operations DENY FLIGHT, PROVIDE PROMISE, and JOINT ENDEAVOR. The distinctive accomplishments of Sergeant Hughey reflect credit upon himself, the United States Army, and the Department of Defense.
